

GOTHAM

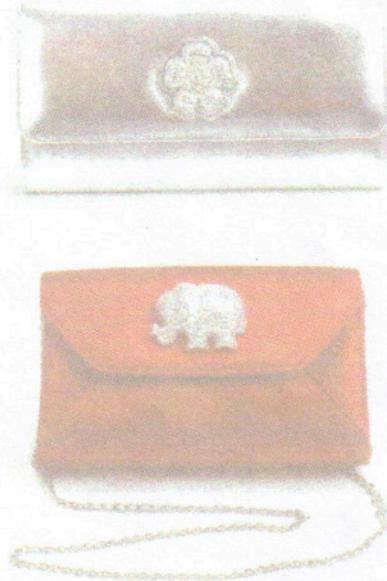

December 2005 - January 2006

DEEP DISH To Di For

GRAY LADY

Satin is regal and Swarovski crystals are imperial, and ElizaGray brings together the best of both with her glorious satin envelope clutch ($792). Some noble ladies who love their ElizaGrays are Audrey Gruss, Michelle Herbert, Andrea Stark, Katherine Adler, Madge Miller, Suzanne Saperstein, and Jane Seymour, among others. The czarina in me also demands a clutch in silver or gold to ring in the New Year. Special order through ElizaGray, 718-899-1499

LOVE SAVES THE DAY

Watch out, Nigella Lawson, I've discovered a new culinary goddess—Donatella Arpaia, of the famed Bellini, David Burke & Donatella, and Ama. She's a restaurateur, a television personality, an authority on entertaining (for Spiegel catalog), is writing a guide to food and entertaining, and is now making Ama's celebrated handcrafted almond cookies ($15 per canister) and other Italian goodies available to the public. The cookies—which the label says are "made with love"—will be loved by all who taste them. Visit donatellastyle.com.

